Guest Lecture on Silviculture in Small Scale Private Forests (22 November 2011)

On 22 November 2012, a guest lecture on Silviculture in small scale private forests for S1 students majoring in Forest Products IPB was held by presenting Ir. E. Kosasih, an experienced foresters, working to promote development of timber plantation in small scales. Discussion with students covered area of motivation for planting trees, institutional framework of sharia based sharing system, planting stock production as well as problems and prospects. Tree species under discussion were teak, sengon and jabon (@izs).