NAPOLEON

The humphead wrasse or Napoleon (Cheilinus undulatus) is a species of wrasse mainly found on coral reefs in the Indo-Pacific region, and is one of the largest reef fishes in the world. It is protected in Indonesia. The species is naturally rare, and thus is a lucky to encountered them in reefs.