Socio-Economic Impact of Trade Remedy Actions Workshop

The advanced workshop will address how to conduct a comprehensive and complex modelling assessment of the socio-economic impact of trade remedy actions. The interactive workshop will focus on the framework, process and data models for the impact assessment. At the end of the process, the participants drawn from policymakers and analysts who are members of the National Interest Consideration Team (Tim PKN) are expected to understand the process and the mechanics of the methodology.