Happy the 69th Independence Day to Indonesia

Happy the 69th Independence day, 17th August 2014 to my lovely country Indonesia. For all Indonesian friends, on this day, let's remember what we have done for this country?
  on this day, let's think about what are our real contributions that we have given to this nation?
  on this day, let's learn from our past to build the better future of Nusantara. Remember that to develop this country is a duty of all of us.
  and keep in your mind that you are proud to be an Indonesian
I love Indonesia, and I am proud to be an Indonesian
