A Problem Is A Chance For You To Do Your Best

“A problem is a chance for you to do your best.” —DUKE ELLINGTON
Doing your best is first sparked by being yourself. If you can't plant seeds that will bear fruit that you have no appetite for, you won't eat, and when you don't eat, you starve. Your happiness is determined by a lot of things, but at the root of it all you have to learn how to be yourself, and learn how to live a life working towards becoming your best "self".

There will be those who try to make your life miserable by trying to tell you what you can and cant do. There will be many obstacles and barriers on the way to becoming a powerful, and confident person, knowing which direction that you want to take in life.

But, we have to continue to strive to be our best! Everything that you do today will affect your future in some sort of way. Make the best decisions for you and for the people who you desire to bless and be an inspiration to!
