"If you're giving your all to someone and it's not enough you're probably giving it to the wrong person."

Sometimes we give our all to someone and we end up being hurt by this same person. When we experience a pain like this, it cuts very deep, and we start to question ourselves and whether we gave a good enough effort, and if we did everything right that we may have possibly been able to.

Heartbreak is a very difficult thing to deal with, and sometimes in life we deal with it in the wrong ways. Don't blame yourself, when someone else chooses not to be with you. Everyone has choices to make in life, and you can't force someone to be with you.

More importantly, you shouldn't have to want to force someone to be with you! If someone doesn't recognize you for the greatness inside of you, and if they can't see how much of an addition that you are to their lives, then they most certainly don't deserve to be a part of your life! Let them go, you deserve someone who will treat you as the special being you truly are!
