Keep Your Eyes On The Stars And Your Feet On The Ground

Keep Your Eyes On The Stars And Your Feet On The Ground

THEODORE ROOSEVELT
"Keep your eyes on the stars and your feet on the ground."

Though there are times in our lives where it does seem that many things are going our way, and that the principles of hard work, perseverance, and an undying faith are truly paying off in our lives, it is easy to start feeling proud, and to let our foot off the pedal, as things seem to be taking their rightful place in our minds.

We must remember when we experience this type of blessed life, that if we wish to maintain it, we have to be willing to keep our feet on the ground, even when our head is in the clouds.

Staying humble in life is done by you doing a multitude of things, like putting others before yourself in some instances, praising others including God for helping you when others give you praise, being appreciative, and non judgmental while
