Nothing Worth Having Comes Easy

One Day You Will Be Able To Forgive

"Nothing worth having comes easy."
Life isn't just about being inspired. Much of life consists of putting in the hard work that it takes to get you to where you need to be. While prayer, belief in God, and belief in his works through you will help to take you far in life, you will go nowhere if you aren't willing to put in the work to actually go. You won't die from working as hard as you can in most cases. There are ways to do well without working your hardest, but most people who don't give their all in life end up with many regrets before their life's end.

Don't be one of these people! Make the most out of your life by doing the most, and being the greatest person you may possibly become. Take risks, and seek out challenges instead of allowing distractions to rule your life.
