Whatever you can do or dream you can, begin it. Boldness has genius, power and magic in it.

"Whatever you can do or dream you can, begin it. Boldness has genius, power and magic in it."
Being bold in life is more than just a suggested way to live, it is necessary for anyone who wants to achieve greatness in their lifetime. Being bold requires that a person skip past feelings of hesitation, and use the greatness that is inside of them so that the world may be their canvas to paint with whatever it is they may do.

Being bold isn't just taking risks, and being aggressive, being bold requires that a person make a lifestyle out of being who they truly are on the inside, without much care for what people may think about them inwardly or outwardly.

If we are to live a bold life we must be willing to make something out of nothing in some instances, and go through open doors, even if that may mean a door has to close behind us. Living a bold life may mean leaving a net of safety by venturing into a sea of the unknown, but remember its rewards are much greater than a life where few days are seized with the utmost care.
