"Your life is a result of the choices you make... If you don't like your life it is time to start making better choices."
Your life and the memories that you leave behind for others by the time you are gone, are are of God's own design, and can be manipulated in whatever ways you choose for them to be, because we are all given choices. This world is your canvas and you can paint your life however you choose to. Be yourself, and only yourself. Find the things that you love to do, and do them with all of your heart! Give yourself a good chance to change the world by the time you leave it.

We are all capable of affecting others plenty, and we can do so in either a negative or positive way. Showing others that working hard, with honor, respect, humility, faith, and great strength, are sure fire techniques to help inspire others in a positive way. You are good enough to make this world a positive place, so try to leave behind your inhibitions and your worries when you are in true pursuit of your goals and dreams!
