Symptom of Weak Iman

- Committing sins and not feeling any guilt.
- Having a hard heart and no desire to read the Quran
- Feeling too lazy to do good deeds, e.g. being late for salat
- Neglecting the Sunnah.
- Not feeling anything when hearing verses from the Quran, for example when Allah warns us of punishments and His promise of glad tidings.
- Finding difficulty in remembering Allah and making dhikr.
- Not feeling bad when things are done against the Shari'ah.
- Ordering others to do good deeds when not practicing them ourselves.
- Feeling pleased when things are not progressing for others.
- Being concerned with whether something is haram or halal only; and not avoiding makroo (not recommended) things.
- Making fun of people who do simple good deeds, like cleaning the Masjid.
- Not feeling concerned about the situation of Muslims.
- Not feeling the responsibility to do something to promote Islam.
- Liking to argue just for the sake of arguing without any proof.
- Becoming engrossed and very involved with dunya, worldly things, i.e. feeling bad only when losing something in terms of material wealth.

Here are some ways that can help you increase your faith:

- Read & Understand the Quran
- Try to pray on time
- Make time for prayer, whether in your free time or your busy schedule
- Pray at the Masjid (regularly if you can)
- Attend Friday prayers
- Attend Islamic events at your community
- Say Asalaamu-allaykum whenever you meet someone
- Stay clean and hygienic
- Retain your Wudu (Ablution)
- Do good deeds
- Stay away from bad deeds and be happy about it
- Correct someone if they do something wrong
