In 2000, United Nation signed the United Nations Millenium Declaration, which includes Millenium Development Goals (MDGs) to be achieved by 2015 or 2020. This represented the first time that a holistic strategy to meet the development needs of the world has been established, with measurable targets and defined indicators. Therefore, international development is becoming more and more important issue.

International seminar 2015 on development is a wide concept concerning level of development on an international scale. Recently, international development is often used in a holistic and multi-disciplinary context of human development. In this context, international development usually encompasses many things such as foreign aid, poverty reduction, infrastructure, economics, education, environment, and issues associated with these. One important and very urgent issue is society empowerment.
